

On Sunday, March 27 we will begin an new Sermon Series on the Holiness of God.

In a world that appears to love evil and hate truth I am compelled by God to take us, as His people, toward His immeasurable Holiness which will allow an accurate view of God to destroy our self-sufficient, blinded view of ourselves.
As followers of God we must look full in his Holy Face and weep over our sinfulness and celebrate that he has made the way in Jesus. Rejoice!

In preparation for next Sunday, March 27

Please read this passage:

Exodus 15:11-12 and 1 Sam. 2:2