From The Heart

Psalm 46:10 says, “Be still and know that I am God.” The word “still” is a Hebrew word that carries the idea of to care, heal, repair, thoroughly make whole through ceasing, being alone, and drawing toward evening. The word “know” in this passage has a great variety of meanings but primarily that of ascertaining by seeing. This verse encourages us to draw aside from the business of life in order to see God more clearly and know Him more intimately.

During these very busy and exciting days of summer, remember to take time and draw close to the Lord. These times can be those moments you spend alone in prayer and God’s Word as well as worship and Bible study at church. I have heard it said that summer is not a “vacation from God.” Summer is not taking a break from God and the Great Commission He has called us to. Summer is actually a great time of service and missions.

In this issue of the Focus, you will find many opportunities of serving. All these ministries need our full prayer support. Lives can be impacted for the cause of our Savior as we join together in prayer lifting up those in the trenches of ministry.

I want to also encourage us to not grow weary in our service. Let the Lord renew your strength and build you up as you are doing God’s work. Take time to “be still and know God.” God wants to nourish and renew you in your service.

I look forward to serving you each Sunday for great times of worship and renewal.

From the Heart,
Pastor BR
