During the past few days, all of us have been seeing the images and hearing the voices of people impacted by Hurricane Harvey in Texas. Whether on TV or social media, even now we continue to hear about the storms still raging and threatening people in Houston and other nearby Gulf Coast areas.

You can help with relief efforts by donating to SBDR.org/Texas. Please know that 100% of donations will be used to help those affected by the hurricane. This is done in partnership with Southern Baptist Disaster Relief Ministries that are closest to the devastation and to people in need.
