CONNECTING AND RECONNECTING PEOPLE TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

HIGH ATTENDANCE SUNDAY
JANUARY 28

Why is Sunday School so important?

Sunday School enables you to connect with other people who share a similar path in life, as well as a place to live life together. Being connected in a small group allows you to get to know people and make friends, but more importantly, Sunday School helps you access the application of God’s Word in your daily life. The challenge for you is to get connected to a Sunday School class for the first time, or get re-connected to a Sunday School class.

Our teachers and staff have a sincere desire for you to Connect/Re-Connect to Sunday School on Sunday, January 28.

Uganda Mission Trip Informational Meeting

Sunday, January 28 at 12:00 P.M. in the Fellowship Hall. Everyone who interested in going to Uganda in September or October 2018 is encouraged to attend. Pricing and trip information will be shared. Contact Wanda Fontaine at 857-3974 for more information.

Isaiah 58 Ministry Needs Volunteers

Help is needed to pack suitcases, hang clothes, and delivering suitcases. Please contact Paula Garrett at 452-6162 or Dawn Green at 467-8631 if you are able to help a little or alot!!

Volunteers Needed for the Library Ministry

We have an urgent need for someone to open the library between 8:30-9:00 A.M. on Sundays. Previous library experience is not necessary. If you are currently not serving in another ministry please consider joining the Library Ministry Team! Contact Janet Parker 452-9227 if you are interested or have questions!

Host Homes needed for D-Now March 2 - 4

Please pray about hosting 5 to 6 youth in your home for this year’s Disciple Now, March 2-4. Host homes are asked to provide breakfast on Saturday and Sunday and snacks at night. Contact Chad at 558-6400 if you are interested.
